SS22 PRE-COLLECTION

As the light slowly but surely returns, so does the promise of spring. In anticipation of sprouting leaves and warmer days ahead, we look towards our beloved green spaces and feel both excited and optimistic as we start to daydream of cooling drinks on the balcony and gatherings in the garden. In our green sanctuaries, we welcome the return of those first familiar sun rays that create long shadows and invite us to spend time outside. Seeking to capture a cherished moment of spring, we slow down, comfortably nestled on the sofa of our outdoor oasis and embrace the feeling of new beginnings.

Signifying our longing for spring, our outdoor collection combines warm nuances, responsible materials and tactile designs that we believe capture the very essence of this hopeful season. Creating an undeniable feeling of optimism and reminding us just how beautiful change can be, the collection invites you to make an outdoor haven of your own - a place where rustic trees are planted in large terracotta pots and where you can let your mind wander as you gaze up into a clear blue sky.
